President Andrew Jackson's Message to Congress 'On Indian Removal' (1830)

"The brave man inattentive to his duty, is worth little more to his country, than the coward who deserts her in the hour of danger." — at Battle of New Orleans —

"The bank, Mr. Van Buren, is trying to kill me, but I will kill it."

1767: Andrew Jackson is born in Waxhaw, S.C.
1787: Jackson is licensed as an attorney in North Carolina.
1796: represents Tennessee in the U.S. House of Representatives.
1797: elected to the U.S. Senate.
1812-1815: War of 1812.
1824: presidential election — "corrupt bargain."
1829-1837: 7th POTUS.
1830: Indian Removal Act.
1833-1834: Bank War.
1845: dies at The Hermitage.

"The people are the government, administering it by their agents; they are the Government, the sovereign power."

The Constitution and the laws are supreme and the Union indissoluble.